Okay. It'll be at least a half hour, so hopefully you'll be past that deadzone. (Probably dodging cell towers in the Arbuckles; Lol).

Okay. I'm on another call right now. Gary and I will talk when this call is over and then call you if needed. Are you driving to OKC (that is, we have about 90 min before you are at the airport)?

Thanks. We will call you. I am looking for short to the point answers. I can write down what you tell us.

I assume that Dave has your phone number.

DRAFT DELIBERATIVE

Hi all. The simplest thing is to just follow the attached two-pager which covers nearly all of what was mentioned at the Dec meeting I believe.

That's what I've done in the attached word document to help focus our answers.

I still need to send a proposed timeline and invite for our next call. I do propose getting some draft answers down on this list for discussion soon – maybe Friday?
